

No. All interested players and parents are welcome to attend any of the team workouts throughout the year free of charge, with no obligation. Please contact me before the workout(s) you will be attending, however, so I can advise you on the best workout(s) to attend based on the age of your son.