

If you find you are unable to attend many of the scheduled workouts for your team, you may attend another team's workouts. All Carolina Elite baseball team's practices include the same instruction in all phases of the game, so attending another team's practice will not hinder your development. Please contact James Molinari if you do plan to attend another team's workout, so he can prepare the practice accordingly.